London, England
June 29 – August 2 | $5350

London’s calling! Located along the River Thames, students will experience one of the world’s most diverse and multicultural cities. The city is steeped in history that has inspired artists, writers, and students for centuries. Walk in their footsteps while calling central London home for five weeks. Students in this program will have the option to visit Hampton Court, Stonehenge, Cambridge, the White Cliffs of Dover and more!

AM Courses
- Mixed Media Drawing
- Intro to Psychology
- Politics of the British Isle: An Era of Change
- Survey of World History II
- Voice, Dictation, and British Dialects for Performers & Speakers
- World Literature I: Travel & Discovery
- Principles of Public Speaking
- History of Information Systems

PM Courses
- Art Appreciation
- Psychology of British Ghosts & Mediums
- Intro to Comparative Politics: Who Governs and How?
- History of the Industrial Revolution
- Introduction to Theater
- Tours of London in Lit & Visual Culture
- Public Relations Crisis Communications

Waterford, Ireland
June 15 – July 20 | $5200

Spend five weeks living and studying on the Emerald Isle! Waterford, a former Viking settlement that maintains a mediaeval charm, will be your home while you explore the mountains and valleys of southeastern Ireland and take in some of Europe’s most outstanding castles, ecclesiastical sites, prehistoric monuments, and 21st century cities. Students in this program will also spend a weekend visiting the rugged West of Ireland in Killarney as well as an overnight stay in Dublin. *Mandatory 1 hour Irish Culture class for all students

AM Courses
- Introduction to Global Issues
- Multimedia Reporting
- World Literature I
- Death in the Emerald and British Isles
- Introduction to Business
- US History to 1877: How the Irish Came to America

PM Courses
- Colonialism, Rebellion, and Revolution
- Foundations of Mass Communication
- Irish Folklore & Creativity
- Principles of Marketing
- Introduction to Anthropology

Madrid, Spain
June 29 – August 4 | $5500

Madrid is the geographic center of Spain and the historic center of the Hispanic world. During the five week European Council program you will experience the vibrancy of old and new Madrid in your classes, on your field trips, and on your own in the sites and streets of this great city. Past participants have been able to enjoy optional weekend excursions to North of Spain, South of Spain, Barcelona, or Portugal!

AM Courses
- Spanish Conversation
- Spanish 2001
- World Civilization I
- Cervantes & Shakespeare
- Terrorism & Insurgency
- Introduction to Anthropology
- Drawing I or II

PM Courses
- Spanish Grammar & Composition
- Spanish 2002
- Muslims, Christians, and Jews in Medieval Spain
- World Literature I
- Introduction to International Studies
- Food and Culture of Spain
- Art Appreciation

Updated 9/6/2016
Edinburgh, Scotland
May 13 – May 26 | $2995

Join us for two weeks in historic Edinburgh and walk the same streets as historic figures such as Mary Queen of Scots, Adam Smith and William Wallace. See the sites that inspired literary figures such as Harry Potter, Sherlock Holmes, and Dr. Jekyll & Mr. Hyde. Students will be fully immersed in Scottish culture as they explore this cosmopolitan city that is surrounded by a dramatic landscape of mountains, valleys, lochs and an extinct volcano.

Lower Level Courses
- Rebels, Kings, & Witches: Scotland Before 1865
- British Lit I: From Fairyland to Hogwarts: Fantasy Worlds of Scotland

Upper Level Courses
- Witch Burning to Body Snatching: The Transformation of Scotland (1550-1850)
- The Devil Went Down to Scotland: Witchcraft and Wizardry in Scottish Writing

St. Petersburg, Russia
June 24th– July 24th | $4950

Join us for one month in Russia and experience all this picturesque city has to offer! Created by Peter the Great as his “Window to Europe”, St. Petersburg is often referred to as the Venice of the North as it combines its Russian heritage with a European outlook. Included in the program is a 4 day cruise on the Baltic Sea stopping in Finland, Sweden, and Estonia as well as an optional weekend excursion to Moscow.

*Mandatory 2hour Russian Culture class for all students

AM Courses
- St. Petersburg in War & Revolution
- International Economics

PM Courses
- Russian Literature
- Gender, Race and Communism
- Current Issues in Economics: Russian
- Business Culture
  (Prerequisite: Principles of Macro & Micro Econ)

Berlin, Germany
June 29th– August 2nd | $5300

Spend five weeks studying and living in Germany’s capital and discover how Germany’s turbulent past has shaped modern-day Europe. Youthful, artistic and hip, Berlin is one of Europe’s most populous cities but maintains a more tranquil feel as a 1/3 of the city is composed of forests, gardens, and parks. Through coursework in a wide range of subjects and hands on exploration through excursions and cultural events, you’ll gain critical insight into contemporary Germany and Europe. Participants in this program will be able to take a day trip to Warnemünde to visit the Baltic Sea!

AM Courses
- Elementary German I
- History of German Scientist
- Introduction to Psychology
- World Literature II

PM Courses
- German Language and Culture
- Renewable Energy & the Environment
- Psychology of Adulthood & Aging

Paris, France
June 30 – August 6 | $5200

An urban adventure awaits you in Paris! Spend five weeks studying and living in the “City of Lights”, renowned for its cafes, art, architecture, food, history, and culture. Paris is an invitation to experience all the world’s cultures while maintaining a proud and distinctly French feeling. Discover the city’s allure for yourself when you study abroad in Paris with the European Council. Students in this program will also have the options of visiting Alsace, Normandy, the Loire River Valley, and Euro Disney.

AM Courses
- Survey of Economics
- Human Development
- Introduction to Business
- Visual Rhetoric
- World Literature I
- Watercolor I or II
- The Harlem Renaissance in Paris
- Sociology of Sport
- Americans & Paris: Survey of US History II
- French Reading and Writing
- Intermediate French II

PM Courses
- Managerial Economics
- Psychology of Nutrition
- International Business
- Travel Writing
- The French Connection (Literature)
- Art Appreciation
- Cultural Anthropology: Culture & Diversity of France
- Intro to Sociology
- Black Paris: African American History in France
- French 1002
- French Conversation & Composition