

London, England

June 28 – August 2 | $5400

London's calling! Located along the River Thames, students will experience one of the world's most diverse and multicultural cities. The city is steeped in history that has inspired artists, writers, and students for centuries. Walk in their footsteps while calling central London home for five weeks. Students in this program will have the option to visit Hampton Court, Stonehenge, Cambridge, the White Cliffs of Dover and more!

AM Courses

- Intro to Philosophy
- British Literature
- Human Genetics
- History of Computers and Security
- Politics of the British Isles
- London's Iconic Architecture and Interiors

PM Courses

- British Philosophy
- It's Steampunk! Evolution of a Literary Genre
- Biology of Toxins and Venoms
- Culture of International Business
- World Literature
- Intro to Comparative Politics
- Art, Society and Culture

Waterford, Ireland

June 14 – July 19 | $5200

Spend five weeks living and studying on the Emerald Isle! Waterford, a former Viking settlement that maintains a mediaeval charm, will be your home while you explore the mountains and valleys of southeastern Ireland and take in some of Europe's most outstanding castles, ecclesiastical sites, prehistoric monuments, and 21st century cities. Students in this program will also spend a weekend visiting the rugged West of Ireland in Killarney as well as an overnight stay in Dublin. *Mandatory 1hour Irish Culture class for all students

AM Courses

- Introduction to Global Issues
- Multimedia Journalism: Feature Writing
- Global Social Work
- Introduction to Art
- Erin go Bragh: Irish & British Literature
- War & Revolution: Struggle for Ireland Independence

PM Courses

- Colonialism, Rebellion, and Revolution
- Sports Communication
- Introduction to Sociology
- Sketchbook Drawing
- Writing Home Abroad

Madrid, Spain

June 28 – August 3 | $5300

Madrid is the geographic center of Spain and the historic center of the Hispanic world. During the five week European Council program you will experience the vibrancy of old and new Madrid in your classes, on your field trips, and on your own in the sites and streets of this great city. Past participants have been able to enjoy optional weekend excursions to North of Spain, South of Spain, Barcelona, or Portugal!

AM Courses

- Spanish Conversation
- Spanish 2002
- US History
- Sustainability & the City
- Drawing I
- The Mediterranean City
- Cross Cultural Psychology

PM Courses

- Spanish 2001
- Transnational History
- Sustainable Design in Spain
- World Literature I
- Psychology of Gender
- Art Appreciation

Edinburgh, Scotland

May 12 – May 25 OR May 26-June 8 | $2995

Join us for two weeks in historic Edinburgh and walk the same streets as historic figures such as Mary Queen of Scots, Adam Smith and William Wallace. See the sites that inspired literary figures such as Harry Potter, Sherlock Holmes, and Dr. Jekyll & Mr. Hyde. Students will be fully immersed in Scottish culture as they explore this cosmopolitan city that is surrounded by a dramatic landscape of mountains, valleys, lochs and an extinct volcano. (courses vary for each session)

Lower Level Courses

- Rebels, Kings, & Witches: Scotland Before 1865
- British Lit I: Fairyland to Hogwarts
- Introduction to Psychology

Upper Level Courses

- Witch Burning to Body Snatching: The Transformation of Scotland (1550-1850)
- Witchcraft and Wizardry in Scottish Writing
- Psychology of Scottish Ghosts & Second Site

St. Petersburg, Russia June 23– July 23 | $4950

Join us for one month in Russia and experience all this picturesque city has to offer! Created by Peter the Great as his “Window to Europe”, St. Petersburg is often referred to as the Venice of the North as it combines its Russian heritage with a European outlook. Included in the program is a 4 day cruise on the Baltic Sea stopping in Finland, Sweden, and Estonia as well as an optional weekend excursion to Moscow. *Mandatory 2hour Russian Culture class for all students

AM Courses

- RUSS 1001/1002/2001/2002/3001/3002
Russian Language
- St. Petersburg in War & Revolution
- International Economics
- Drawing/Water Media I
- Modern & Contemporary Art in St. Pete

PM Courses

- Russian Literature
- Gender, Race and Communism
- Current Issues in Economics: Russian
- Business Culture
- Drawing/Water Media II
- Art, Society & Culture: Contemporary Art in St. Pete

Berlin, Germany

June 28th– August 1 | $5300

Spend five weeks studying and living in Germany’s capital and discover how Germany’s turbulent past has shaped modern-day Europe. Youthful, artistic and hip, Berlin is one of Europe’s most populous cities but maintains a more tranquil feel as a 1/3 of the city is composed of forests, gardens, and parks. Through coursework in a wide range of subjects and hands on exploration through excursions and cultural events, you’ll gain critical insight into contemporary Germany and Europe. Participants in this program will be able to take a day trip to Warnemünde to visit the Baltic Sea!

AM Courses

- Elementary German I
- History of German Scientist
- Music Appreciation
- Intro to Sociology
- World Civilization II

PM Courses

- Intermediate German II
- World Literature II
- Berlin at the forefront of Artistic Sessions
- History of Nazi Germany
- Sociology of Food and Culture

Paris, France

June X – August X | $5200

An urban adventure awaits you in Paris! Spend five weeks studying and living in the “City of Lights”, renowned for its cafes, art, architecture, food, history, and culture. Paris is an invitation to experience all the world’s cultures while maintaining a proud and distinctly French feeling. Discover the city’s allure for yourself when you study abroad in Paris with the European Council. Students will also have the options of visiting Alsace, Normandy, & the Loire River Valley.

AM Courses

- Human Development
- Chemistry of Warfare
- Murder, Mayhem and Mystery
- 20th Century Expatriate Literature
- British Romanticism
- Global Issues: Muslims in France
- Crisis in European Union
- French Reading and Writing in Paris
- Watercolor Painting in Paris
- Introduction to Anthropology
- French 2001
- Black Culture in Paris Today

PM Courses

- Psychology of Nutrition
- Medicinal Chemistry
- Through the Peephole: The Gaze in French Cinema
- World Literature II
- World Literature I
- Global Issues: Muslims in France
- Art in the “City of Light”: An Introduction to Art in Paris
- Death in Paris
- French Conversation
- Cultural Anthropology